OUTSTANDING COUNCIL AND MACKIE AWARD
WINNER

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Nan Harper, President, Pensacola Council Navy League

Published Quarterly

The April 26th Enlisted Recognition Breakfast celebrated the successful community outreach of personnel representing all branches of service associated with NAS Pensacola, NAS Whiting and Corry Station. Thirty-one recipients were recognized, and CAPT Maxine Goodridge, USN, Commanding Officer of Naval Air Technical Training Center was Guest Speaker. CAPT Goodridge encouraged all to “show up better than you were yesterday.” Kudos to Mark Curley and Bill Cuiлик, for their leadership in organizing this event.

Military Spouse Appreciation Luncheon, spearheaded by Harry White and Bob Anderson, took place May 24th, with twenty-five spouses recognized. Guest speaker Amy Cozad shared humorous and inspiring anecdotes regarding the many roles the military spouse fulfills. In the spirit of the theme, recognition is the reward for all who serve as the other half of the home team. Sue Straughn served as Mistress of Ceremonies. Navy Federal Credit Union and Pen Air Federal Credit Union, as always, supported these events with gift bags and monetary contributions.

The USCG Cutter DECISIVE was welcomed to Pensacola with banners and gift bags, in anticipation of the Cutter and her crew's being homeported in Pensacola. CDR Jose Martis assumed command of the ship June 11th, relieving CDR Blake Novak. CDR Martis averred that all are delighted to become part of our local community. Gerald McGill provided banners which were also used to welcome the crew of the USCG Cutter DAUNTLESS, when she and her crew arrived on July 10th. Navy League is charged with incorporating these groups into our sphere and supporting them during their stay among us.

At the 2018 National Navy League Conference in Portland, Oregon, the Pensacola Navy League was granted the “MACKIE AWARD” for excellence in Social Media (Carol Monroe, manager of the Facebook page deserves applause, along with Kevin Miller). Pensacola was also recognized as OUTSTANDING CHAPTER” and Nanci Pruter was awarded SCROLL OF HONOR, the 2nd highest award at the national level. Legislative Affairs Officer Kevin Miller, National Director Mark Harden, and Area Representative Michael Dollen, and Nanci Pruter attended the conference and accepted the awards on behalf of our hardworking chapter.

Plans are in progress for the 2018 Annual Summer Membership Social, set for August 23rd, which will be presented in concert with the US Marine Corps League. Sponsorships are requested and appreciated. The occasion is designed to bring new members to both associations and to prepare for fundraising involved in the 2019 commissioning of the USS TRIPOLI. Admirals' Club committee chairman Bobby Riggs announced RADM Don Quinn, USN (Ret) and John Carr will present on the commissioning of the USS TRIPOLI at the September 11th speaker's series luncheon. The Freedoms Foundation at Valley Forge is hosting the POW/MIA luncheon on September 18th, with guest speaker Ellen Vinson. October 4th is the date for our annual Chicken Barbeque, and our Navy League National President, Alan Kaplan, has been invited. This is an annual membership opportunity, so mark your calendars and invite potential members as your guests. Remember, the NL member who recruits the most new members will be given dinner for two at a Pensacola restaurant of his/her choice! Our annual Golf Tournament, held October 12th, is spearheaded by Dean-o Fournier, so gather your golfing buddies and prepare for a Swingin' Time.

The board welcomes NAS Pensacola's CMDCM Chief Mario Rivers, USN, as our new Military Liaison. Master Chief Rivers expressed his enthusiasm, and we are grateful for his presence and energy.

Finally, PENSACOLANAVYLEAGUE.ORG, our new website, is established and running. We appreciate the dedication of our Webmaster, Dan McCort, who has dedicated time and tenacity to its development. The website is accessible for membership dues payments, for responding to Navy League events invitations, and includes a plethora of information regarding local and national activities. Check it out!

Pensacola Named Outstanding Council

Reported by: Kevin Miller

Portland, Oregon hosted hundreds of Navy Leaguers for the 2018 Navy League National Convention. Held at the Waterside Marriott Hotel along the picturesque Willamette River, the four-day convention featured an impressive program of committee workshops and open seminars to enhance Navy League effectiveness at the Regional and Council levels.

Attended by Pensacola Council members Tom and Nanci Pruter, Mark Harden, Mike Dollen and Kevin Miller, the first three days' agenda was full of working groups and committee meetings involving membership, communications, social media best practices, ship commissioning considerations, fundraising, legislative affairs outlook and Youth/STEM programs, a list that is far from complete. Members received sea service updates from high ranking Navy, Marine Corps, and Coast Guard officers, and the value of Navy League Defense Budget advocacy and Sea Cadet efforts was emphasized by all. The Sea Service Awards Luncheon was keynoted by Gen. Darren McDew, USAF, Commander, US Transportation Command, who lauded the value of the Sea Services and especially the vital importance of sealift to our worldwide deployment and contingency efforts.

At the Council Awards Luncheon the Pensacola Council was recognized as one of twelve Outstanding Navy League Councils, a testament to the good work done by Pensacola Navy League members over many years. The Pensacola Council was also recognized for excellence in Social Media, garnering a Third Place Mackie Award recognition among medium councils.

Evening social events dovetailed with Portland's Rose Festival and Fleet Week which included port visits by the USCG cutter Steadfast, patrol boat Orcas, and Royal Canadian Navy frigate Regina and coastal defense vessel Nanaimo.

The convention was an excellent opportunity to see how Navy League benefits our sea services, to catch up with shipmates, and to meet our outstanding men and women in uniform there to receive deserved recognition.

Consider attending a future convention, and the Sea Air Space Exposition held each spring.

USCG CUTTERS RELOCATE TO PENSACOLA

The Pensacola Council welcomed the crews of the USCG Cutter Decisive (WMEC-629), a 210-foot cutter and the Coast Guard Cutter Dauntless (WMEC-624), a 210-foot cutter when they relocated to Pensacola in June and July.

Each cutter boasts a crew of 76 coast guardsmen who conduct a variety of Coast Guard missions, including counter drug enforcement, alien migration interdiction operations, search and rescue and maritime law enforcement.

The cutters will be home-ported at NAS Pensacola, along with the USCG Cutter Cypress (WLB-210).

SEA CADETS

INDEPENDENCE SQUADRON

By Jim Crumlish, Community Liaison for the Sea Cadets

During each monthly two-day drill period, Sea Cadets of Pensacola's Independence Squadron, continue to conduct Military Training requirements, and frequently engage in challenging STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics) program activities. Often, Sea Cadets participate in various community services, including beach cleanup, color guard for Navy League and other community events. Earning advancement in rank is a planned goal for all cadets. Officers and volunteer instructors (civilian and military) mentor cadets as they progress with individual plans.

The May 2018 drill period included planning and preparation for Sea Cadets' annual Summer Camp, generally a week or two away from home, for military and other purposes. A special lecture on Nuclear Fusion met with attentive interest of all cadets. The easy to understand STEM training was presented by the Sea Cadet's Executive Officer, CAPT Curtis Duncan, who recently commanded a nuclear submarine. Sea Cadets later joined other local youth groups for the annual 5K run, organized by St. John's Catholic Church on Navy Boulevard. The new Independence Squadron flag was introduced at the run event.

June drill engaged all League and Sea Cadets in a Sunfish Sailing Regatta, exploiting their recently earned sailing certifications. Part of the exercise involved dumping the boats and safely recovering to sailing condition. On that bright, sunny Saturday, the swimming part was a welcome extra. Four new recruits joined the squadron during the regatta.

Sunday's study for exams was followed by ceremonies in the Atrium of the National Museum of Naval Aviation. Two graduated Seniors, CPO Mary Beth Geary and PO2 Josh Conrad, were presented with shadow-boxed memorabilia and bid "Farewell and Following Seas". Cadet Conrad took the mike and captured the audience with his unique observations of his just completed Fleet Week involvement, as the squadron's representative.

To recognize the extensive two year contributions of the unit's departing Executive Officer, the Navy League Pensacola Council President, Nan Harper, presented CAPT Curtis Duncan with a beautifully framed certificate. Sea Cadet Liaison Jim Crumlish, read a glowing Citation of this modest officer's influences with the Independence Squadron.

The Command Master Chief of NAS Pensacola, CMDCM Mario Rivers, has enthusiastically committed to providing support to our Sea Cadet program, and has already taken steps to protect our rights to the new Sea Cadet facility on the edge of the Naval Air Technical Training Center Campus. Sea Cadets expect to complete the move in July 2018.

The July drill found the Sea Cadets engaging with WWII veterans, to hear their stories, while they prepared to fly in a collection of antique WWII Stearman trainers during the Blue Angel's dress rehearsal show over Pensacola Beach. This Vets' event is organized annually by regional businessman, Roy Kinsey, and his N2S Stearman aircraft and Stearman-owner friends. "Yellow Perils" forever!
